Team building with that certain "WOW effect". With the aim of strengthening the cohesion and team spirit in our newly formed sales team, we decided in favour of "yourshowdown" and we were not disappointed in any way! From the initial contact to the final event, top communication, organisation and implementation! The games were awesome and everyone put their heart and soul into them. No negative voices, just enthusiasm. Gladly again!

We bring our own small music system to make our games even more exciting.

3. Do we need sportswear?

No! You won't break a sweat, normal everyday everyday clothing is perfectly adequate.

4. How many people can take part?

There is no upper limit. We have a large number of games and can customise the game modes to suit your event.

5. Will the van event be offered in German and English?

Yes, we can play the showdown in both German and English.
